This edition’s featured park is the Augrabies Falls National Park:

- Augrabies Falls NP’s is located off the N14 about 100km west of Upington in the Northern Cape Province.
- The park is an ideal stop-over destination for people driving to the Namaqua flower displays, Namibia or the Kgalagadi Transfrontier Park, or taking the longer route between Cape Town and Gauteng.
- The park’s central feature is the magnificent cascade of water plummeting through the Orange River Gorge.
- Other landscape attractions include enchanting names like Moon Rock, Ararat and Echo Corner.
- The park provides sanctuary to a diversity of species, from succulent plants, arid adapted birds and reptiles, to springbok, gemsbok and giraffe.
- There are two 2-bed chalets (roll-in shower) that have adaptations for mobility challenged guests.
- The park’s environmental education centre has a sweeping access ramp and an accessible ablution.
- The rest camp’s main complex has an accessible public ablution and the conference room, information displays, shop, reception and restaurant are all accessed via ramps and wide pathways.
- The series of boardwalks allows all guests, including those in wheelchairs, to enjoy the spectacular force of nature of the Augrabies Falls.
